THE SITUATION:

The New Villas de Mer situated on the west coast of Praslin facing the islands of Cousin & Cousine, stands on a prime site of the island's longest beach.

The new Villas de Mer Hotel has been completely renovated and now offers 10 mini suites with seven in three villas and three others situated in a "plantation style" house all sea facing.

THE AMBIANCE:

The New Villas de Mer is part of the New "Hotels de Charmes" properties in Seychelles and is a haven of peace & tranquillity, close to the bustling heart of Grand' Anse.

The day can be spent criss-crossing the island footpaths, visiting the Garden of Eden (Vallée de Mai), discover the neighbouring islands of ...Aride, Cousin, Curieuse, La Digue and admire the mauve outline of other far -off islands while watching the most beautiful sunset over the islands of Cousin & Cousine, while sipping a tropical cocktail before enjoying the mouth savouring dinner facing the sea.

The Welcome Warm and Smiling, opening the doors to discover what Praslin Island has best to offer to its visitors.

THE MINI SUITES:

Freshness, harmony with the environment and the soft blending of colours are the prime ingredients for a comfortable stay.

The 10 spacious mini suites (with 2 communicated rooms) very well decorated with sitting area and come with private terrace, air-condition, ventilators, mini-bar, TV, en suite bathroom with bath/shower, hair dryer, facility for tea and coffee. Most of the bedrooms can accommodate up to two adults and one or two children.

THE COMMODITIES

The sea view beach restaurant, provide Creole and European cuisine under the management of Lydia Lablache of the Britannia Hotel, also well-known for its excellent cuisine.

A kiosque along the beach offers freshly catch of the day fish from the local fishermen, snack and salad.

Sports & Excursions with supplement: Deep sea fishing, scuba diving and excursions to visit neighbouring islands can be organised upon request at nearby establishments. Free transports for scuba diving at any diving centre on the Island.

The New Villa de Mer is situated only five minutes away by car from the Lemuria Hotel, to the newest and only, 18 holes golf course in the islands.

During the South East Monsoon, (from May to October) the hotel have a daily removal of seaweeds that fall on the beach. For the convenience of our guests we offer free transport to Anse Volbert and Anse Lazio beach.
